

SECO IS HERE FOR YOU

Many subcontractors these days fall in the questionable category. Here today, gone tomorrow... more money, more time lost. Not so with SECO. SECO has been the industry leader in the Southeast since 1989 and has attracted the very best panel manufacturers in America. We are able to provide our clients with the highest quality materials at the best price with optimum lead times. Further, we can project our field forces into the markets of seven states. We can go where your business takes you!

SECO Will Benefit Your Company!

How? SECO IS SAFE

In today's market, owners and contractors cannot afford to work with unsafe and risky contractors. When SECO mobilizes for a project, safety is always our first priority.

Throughout SECO's existence we have invested heavily in the training and maintenance of our highly skilled and safety conscious work force. At SECO we do not talk about safety, we live it. Our dedication to safety has resulted in the lowest EMR in the metal cladding industry. Choose SECO for your next project and if applicable, take advantage of our low bonding rate while eliminating your concerns about safety.

SECO IS A FULL SERVICE SPECIALTY CONTRACTOR

Our clients often take advantage of our full range of services. We assist with budgeting, engineering, detailing and scheduling. Try to get all that with the low price leader! SECO is capable of furnishing and installing virtually any kind of metal panel system. Metal roofs, metal walls, ACM systems, industrial siding and louvers are all SECO specialties. Many of our customers are repeat customers. They recognize that SECO helps them achieve a most critical objective in today's highly competitive market: Owner Satisfaction. We bring this added value to all of our customers.

SECO LEADS IN INNOVATION AND QUALITY

Unlike many subcontractors, SECO strives to deliver the highest quality product possible to our customers. Utilizing our experience and proactive planning, we're able to anticipate and head off challenges before costly problems develop. We endeavor to stay ahead of trends and technology. SECO is always looking for "a better way."

At SECO, nothing shows the quality we deliver better than a completed project. Our reputation is maintained by what we build. Our crews bring an intangible but important asset with them to every job; a sense of ownership and responsibility. The result is a quality structure that our clients take pride in and draw value from. Our ultimate goal is our customer's satisfaction, without compromise.

THE BOTTOM LINE

SECO provides sound, professional solutions for all of your metal panel needs. If satisfied customers, superior quality, safety and increased profit interest you, choose SECO!

Owners and Contractors are always looking for safe, established, quality conscious subcontractors. They have learned that subcontractors lacking these qualities simply cost too much in dollars and time. Why pay for your subs' inexperience?
